Archipelago

The rules, short version

On your turn:

- You must set the stage.
- You must portray your character.
- You can draw a fate card (only once per session)
- You must finish your scene when you're ready.

On other people's turn:

- You can create or play a secondary character.
- You can describe events and the environment.
- You can use an element you own and, in necessary, veto.
- You can interpret resolution or fate cards.

Phrases

- Describe that in detail.
- Harder.
- Help.
- I'd like an interlude after that
- I need to clarify something
- That might not be quite so easy".
- Try a different way.
